LISTENING TEST

In this section, you must demonstrate your ability to understand spoken English. This section is divided into four parts and will take approximately 45 minutes to complete. Do not mark the answers in your test book. Use the answer sheet that is provided separately.

PART 1

Directions: For each question, you will listen to four short statements about a picture in your test book. These statements will not be printed and will only be spoken one time. Select the statement that best describes what is happening in the picture and mark the corresponding letter (A), (B), (C), or (D) on the answer sheet.

Sample Answer

(A) (B) (C) (D)

The statement that best describes the picture is (B), "The man is sitting at the desk." So, you should mark letter (B) on the answer sheet.

Questions 154-156 refer to the following information.

Flying with a Pet

At Pacific Airlines, we make every effort to ensure that our passengers' pets arrive at their destinations safely. If you are planning to fly with an animal, please note the following:

- Arrive early. For domestic flights, pets should be brought to the designated drop-off area in the airport two hours prior to departure. If you are taking an international flight, you should arrive three hours early.
- Bring the required documentation. At the same time, you must submit documentary proof attesting to your pet's current medical condition. The document must be issued by a licensed veterinarian within 10 days of your expected departure. Other documents may be required for international flights. Call the embassy of your destination country to inquire about any additional requirements.
- Use the right carrier. It must be large enough to accommodate your pet comfortably and have adequate ventilation. If the carrier has wheels on the bottom, they must be locked or removed so that the container does not move around while the aircraft is in flight.
- Do not administer sleep medication on your pet. Due to the risk of health complications, Pacific Airlines will not transport any animal that has been artificially sedated.

For more information, visit www.pacificairlines.com.

154. What is the main purpose of the information?

	Tanya Stewart	9:33 A.M.	Derek . . . We need to make some changes to the presentation we're giving on Monday. I just spoke with Mr. Harper, and he wants us to include any data or analysis that we can gather from social media.
	Derek Parker	9:40 A.M.	That makes sense. I think it will improve our presentation if we discuss what people are sharing about us online.
	Tanya Stewart	9:42 A.M.	Yeah, that's what I thought. Why don't we get together this afternoon to discuss how to proceed?
	Derek Parker	9:44 A.M.	I'm attending a workshop after lunch. How about tomorrow morning? 9:30 works for me.
	Tanya Stewart	9:47 A.M.	OK. I'll book the conference room for that time. Do you have the full analysis reports from each of the social media Web sites that we're on? It might be a good idea to go through them before we start tomorrow.
	Derek Parker	9:49 A.M.	Actually, no. I only have the one-page summary showing the number of visits we get on each site, but not much more detail than that. Could you send it to me?
	Tanya Stewart	9:50 A.M.	Sure. Check your e-mail in about 10 minutes.

Questions 165-167 refer to the following customer review.

Restaurant Name: The Seville Grill

Reviewer: Gerald Banner

Score: 2/5

My wife and I decided to try The Seville Grill for our 10th anniversary because we both enjoy Spanish cuisine and there are few local restaurants that specialize in it. The dining area was clean, and the atmosphere was very pleasant. We particularly enjoyed the band that played traditional folk songs.

Unfortunately, the food did not meet our expectations. We ordered several appetizers and were disappointed that they did not taste fresh. For example, the garbanzo bean dip tasted like it had been made two or three days in advance. Furthermore, our entrées were not well prepared—the chicken my wife ordered was overcooked, and the sauce on my seafood dish was far too salty. When I complained to the waiter, I was informed that the kitchen had just closed, so our entrées could not be replaced. Instead, he gave us a free bottle of the house wine. Given the price of our meal, this was unacceptable, and, as a result, we will not be returning to the restaurant again.

165. What is mentioned about The Seville Grill?

- (A) It mainly serves local cuisine.
- (B) It opened 10 years ago.
- (C) It added tables to its dining room.
- (D) It featured live music.

167. What did the waiter provide to Mr. Banner?

- (A) A complimentary beverage
- (B) A price reduction
- (C) A free appetizer
- (D) A takeout menu

166. Why was Mr. Banner unhappy with his entrée?

- (A) It was not cooked thoroughly.
- (B) It was not seasoned properly.
- (C) It was not made with fresh ingredients.
- (D) It was cold when it arrived.

Questions 168-171 refer to the following article.

Grants for Young Filmmakers

In a press release issued on May 11, the National Arts Council announced that it will start providing financial support to young filmmakers to create documentaries. — [1] —. Grants of $30,000 will be awarded to five individuals between the ages of 20 and 30 who successfully complete the application process.

According to Jacob Lee, the director of the organization, the goal of the program is to offer encouragement to talented young artists. — [2] —. In a recent interview, Mr. Lee said, “Although documentaries do not receive a great deal of public attention, they are important forms of cultural expression. These films provide more than just factual information; they present unique perspectives and ways of relating to the world around us.” — [3] —. He went on to add, “Ensuring that a new generation of filmmakers produces these works is an important objective of our organization.”

Ever since he became the head of the National Arts Council, Mr. Lee has been trying to draw attention to film and other types of electronic media. This stands in sharp contrast to his recent predecessor, Sandra Levine, who had a clear preference for supporting more conventional art forms such as painting and sculpture. — [4] —. While Mr. Lee’s approach does have its critics, he has been praised for expanding the scope of the National Arts Council’s activities to address the needs of a more diverse group of artists.

Anyone interested in applying for a grant should visit the organization’s Web site to get information about the process and download the necessary forms. The deadline is June 3. Successful candidates will be notified by July 15, and the funds will be dispersed on August 2.

168. What is NOT mentioned about the National Arts Council?

- (A) It launched a new funding initiative.
- (B) It has a program for a specific age group.
- (C) It has shifted focus away from traditional arts.
- (D) It is financed by the government.

169. What is implied about Jacob Lee?

- (A) He has already selected grant recipients.
- (B) He recently began working in a new position.
- (C) He has hired additional staff members.
- (D) He produced several documentaries.

170. What is expected to happen in August?

- (A) A film festival will be held.
- (B) A new head will be appointed.
- (C) Selected artists will receive monetary aid.
- (D) Chosen interns will begin their work.

171. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3] and [4] does the following sentence best belong?

“At the same time, it is to promote an underrated film genre.”

- (A) [1]
- (B) [2]
- (C) [3]
- (D) [4]

Questions 172-175 refer to the following chain of text messages.

Steven Johnson 7:23 A.M.
I just wanted to let everyone know that I will be at the convention center at 8. I'm stuck in traffic on the Park Street Bridge right now, so I'm running late. Is our company's booth ready for the trade show?

Pam Martinez 7:24 A.M.
Almost. I'm just testing the audio-visual equipment. But there's a problem. I left the brochures about our products at the office.

Katherine Olson 7:25 A.M.
I'm at the office now. Where are they?

Pam Martinez 7:28 A.M.
They're in the lobby, next to the receptionist's desk. Two boxes.

Katherine Olson 7:29 A.M.
No problem. I can get them to the center by 8:30. Will that be too late?

Steven Johnson 7:33 A.M.
That's fine. The doors won't open until 9, so we have plenty of time.

Pam Martinez 7:34 A.M.
One more thing. Apparently there was a mix-up with our payment. One of the center's representatives told me that our payment only covers one day, but I know we were charged for two.

Katherine Olson 7:36 A.M.
OK. I'll stop by the administration desk when I get there. I have the receipt, so I should be able to sort that out quickly.

172. What type of event is being discussed?

- (A) A sales seminar
- (B) A company workshop
- (C) A press conference
- (D) An industry exhibition

173. At 7:25 A.M., what does Ms. Olson most likely mean when she writes "I'm at the office now"?

- (A) She will arrive later than expected.
- (B) She will participate in a meeting.
- (C) She will pick up some materials.
- (D) She will speak with a receptionist.

174. When will the public gain access to the facility?

- (A) At 8:00
- (B) At 8:30
- (C) At 9:00
- (D) At 9:30

175. Why will Ms. Olson visit the administration desk?

- (A) To request document copies
- (B) To resolve a billing concern
- (C) To make a payment
- (D) To inquire about parking

To: Keith Vargas <k.vargas@hammondgroup.com>
From: Cody Boyer <c.boyer@hammondgroup.com>
Date: October 1
Subject: Flu Shot Days Announcement
Attachment: FluShotDays

Dear Keith,

I have attached a copy of this year's Flu Shot Days announcement for people working in Hammond Group's Seattle office. The success of this program depends on the human resources department playing an active role in promoting it, so I need your team's help spreading the information. Could you notify everyone about this event and encourage them to participate?

On the announcement, you'll notice some codes. Managers can see who are scheduled to receive shots at a particular time by entering the code on our Web site. For instance, if you look up code THO15 on the site, you would see the names of all employees registered to receive shots on October 15 between 11:30 A.M. and 1:30 P.M., in the auditorium right above your office. That's all for now. Thanks and let me know if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Cody Boyer
Hammond Group Headquarters

HAMMOND GROUP FLU SHOT DAYS

It's time for the annual Hammond Group Flu Shot Day. As you know, the schedule differs according to which branch you are in. Below is the schedule for the Seattle office, which offers employees there four opportunities to get a flu shot.

If you know which day you would like to receive your flu shot, register at www.hammondgroup.com/flushotdays to save time. You will need to provide your insurance information. If you choose to drop in to the clinic without registering, the process will take longer because staff will need to verify your insurance coverage before administering the vaccine.

Flu Shot Days Clinic Schedule

Date	Code	Time	Where
October 12	MO12	7:30 A.M. – 10:30 A.M.	Hubbard Atrium, Third Floor
October 15	THO15	11:30 A.M. – 1:30 P.M.	Stevenson Auditorium, Seventh Floor
October 21	WO21	10:30 A.M. – 1:30 P.M.	Conference Room 805, Eighth Floor
October 26	MO26	3:30 P.M. – 5:30 P.M.	Lobby, First Floor

181. What is the purpose of the e-mail?

- (A) To request assistance
- (B) To provide medical information
- (C) To announce a client's visit
- (D) To change an event plan

182. Who most likely is Mr. Vargas?

- (A) An employee at a head office
- (B) An owner of a local business
- (C) A doctor from a flu shot clinic
- (D) A worker in human resources

183. What is suggested about the Hammond Group?

- (A) It recently got a new insurance provider.
- (B) It is testing a new vaccine product.
- (C) It has offices in several locations.
- (D) It conducts Flu Shot Days twice a year.

184. How can workers save time when getting their flu shots?

- (A) By visiting early in the morning
- (B) By enrolling on a Web site
- (C) By paying an extra fee
- (D) By contacting a physician

185. On which floor does Mr. Vargas most likely work?

- (A) The first floor

Subject: Language Course
Attachment: Course Descriptions

Dear Ms. Hong,

I was informed by your department manager that you would be leaving for an overseas assignment to Costa Rica for three months, to oversee development of the company's newest resort property. He mentioned that you speak Spanish but would benefit from a refresher course that provides an opportunity to use the language in a business context. He asked me to arrange it for you.

I contacted the Hartford Language Academy, and it offers two options that meet this requirement. Could you look at the attachment to this e-mail and let me know which you prefer? I suggest that you take the afternoon one because it provides a wider variety of learning opportunities.

The registration deadline is May 25, so I'll need an answer before then. Of course, the company will pay for all fees and materials.

Thank you,
Peter Murray

Notice of Instructor Change

May 23

One of our instructors, Samuel Gomez, will be taking a long-term leave of absence due to health issues, effective immediately. The class that Mr. Gomez was scheduled to teach has been assigned to the current instructor of the introductory one instead. Also, please note that there will be some changes to the course content. You should review the updated syllabus that will be posted on the academy's online message board on May 27. If you have already purchased the textbook, don't worry—it will not be changed.

The management of the Hartford Language Academy would like to apologize for any inconvenience that this situation may cause and provide assurances that we are doing everything possible to minimize its impact on students. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us at 555-0392. Thank you.

Special Requests

I need to arrange transportation to and from the airport, so please send me information about your shuttle bus service. Also, as I am a light sleeper, I would like my room to be far from the pool or any other areas of the hotel that are noisy in the mornings. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Barr,

I am writing in response to the e-mail you sent on June 6 regarding your stay at the Sunset Lodge. First of all, I am sorry that the room was not up to your standards. Specifically, you mentioned that the faucet in the bathroom leaked and the air conditioner did not function correctly. I have asked our maintenance manager to address these problems immediately. To compensate you for the inconvenience, we have refunded the cost of one night's accommodation. Please check your credit card statement to confirm that this was done. I would like, however, to point out that the charge for the breakfast you ordered to your room on June 4 at 11:30 A.M. was not an error. Please refer to the terms of the promotion.

If you have any other questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Beth Porter

Blackstone Entertainment Acquires Core Systems

By Sandra Parker

At a press conference on September 3, Donald Hong, CEO and founder of Blackstone Entertainment, announced that his company has taken over the mobile application development firm Core Systems. Blackstone Entertainment is one of the dominant gaming companies, with revenues in excess of $160 million annually for the last five years. However, there was concern among investors that as more and more people switch to playing games on smartphones and tablets, the company's focus on PC and game console products would hinder future growth. Mr. Hong said that the acquisition of Core Systems addresses this issue by bringing into his company a talented team of programmers with a proven track record of creating successful mobile applications. Included in this group are Danielle Meyers, the designer of the hit role-playing game Morning Star; Bill Waters, a talented programmer; and Jared Collins, who will head Blackstone Entertainment's new mobile division. Blackstone Entertainment plans to release its first mobile game in December.

Dear Ms. Parker,

I would like to thank you for the coverage of Blackstone Entertainment's purchase of Core Systems. This deal will enable our company to remain the industry's leader for years to come, and it is important that investors and customers are made aware of it. However, the article you wrote includes a couple of errors. First of all, there is a typo regarding the company's earnings. Our annual revenues have exceeded $260 million for five years straight now. In addition, you reported that Jared Collins will lead our mobile division. Given the success of Morning Star, we felt that the designer of this game should be put in charge.

I would appreciate it if you would publish corrections as soon as possible in both the print and online versions of your publication. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jason Kowalski
